Prayer for Spaciousness

Janie Oakes

Janie Oakes is a poet and collage artist who wanders the hills of her Santa Fe neighborhood alert for assorted delights. Her favorite things are old photographs, peeling paint, rusting steel, and crumbling plaster.

She fell in love with InterPlay in the mid-nineties and every day is still informed by those early interactions with fellow improvisers.

With the Tide

Liz Lescault

Liz is an accomplished artist currently known for her biomorphic sculptures. Liz worked for many years exclusively with clay. She now also combines clay with other media and is currently exploring a variety of media for her sculptures and installations.

A Privileged Conversation

(an art collaboration with Cynthia)

Jeff Davis

Raised in Portland-Seattle-Pittsburgh where obsessive, frowned-upon doodling led to after school detention and a 40-year career designing (hundreds of) buildings from MI to FL. My gratitude each day for Triangle InterPlay and Body Wisdom Inspiration! Belatedly, I found my community.

Staying in Touch

10 stamped postcards

Katharine Kunst

Katharine decided to call herself an artist after spending 16 years as an administrator at Duke University. Following her move to Berkeley, CA in 1996 and joining the InterPlay community shortly thereafter, she set about inventing art projects that would nurture her creativity. Her greatest pleasure comes from making things: journals, drawings, pop-ups, papier maché bowls, paintings, and, yes, dinners..

Summer Pool

Rod Pattenden

Rod Pattenden is an artist, art historian and curator interested in the connections between spirituality and the creative arts. He has contributed widely to the conversation between religion and art in Australia as a curator, writer and workshop leader. He is co-founder of InterPay Australia and has, during Covid times, returned to a painting practice.

A Mini Woodland Book

Maarja Roth

70 years a creative. A woods woman and long distant freshwater swimmer. My play, my work, my being are all about making, re-imagining, indulging in fun and building courage to face the tough stuff.

I love InterPlay!
